SURBURBAN NEWS—

Suburban Chit Chat—The Easter Parade I saw Frank Swan, better known by his friends as (Biscuit). Frank is on the town's best dressed list, very neat and conservative. Speak about well groomed men, T. Pery of Kayo barber's is the man to see for that well groomed look. Very sorry to hear of Rachel Sutton's illness. Wish you a speedy recovery Rachel. My Sincere condolence to Mr. Pat Lucas and family due to loss of his beloved brother Pete. Edith Marshall and Geo. Hargrove are holding hands, have you too set the date yet. Nice couple.

School Issues—No decision has been reached yet with the parties concerned with solving this problem. Whatever your differences are gentlemen, kindly, for the welfare and future of our children; equal education for all. Much depends on your decision. Keep this in mind. Do unto others as you wish others to do unto you. Readers kindly give your support for this cause.

Joke of the Week: Definition of a fool,—The kind of a man who, when opportunity knocks will complain about the noise.

POLLY TICKS

They are shouting from the roof tops; you do the same, if the Central Warders' go to the polls May 8th, and fail to elect Irvine Turner; Negro political progress will be setback another 25 yrs, in the Central Ward. We are not awake in our political thinking, the County Chairman and Mayor has the Afro Americans in the Central Ward doing exactly what they want them to do; fight and quarrel. This means if the man, unbossed, Irvine Turner loses the election your strength all over the City bargaining, and asking for your rights will be lower in scale than ever in the past. Then again you will have no leadership, regardless of what you or I think, Councilman Turner, has spoke up for the people at all times. Sometimes we have felt he was wrong, yet he created an effect which demanded respect from those who even dislike his methods. The Councilman at large candidates are a very good crop of men regardless to race, creed, or color. But lets insure help for Irvine Turner; vote for John T. Barnes, (B-17), William D. Payne, (B-20), and a new Mayor with a vision for all the people Hugh J. Addinizio

Charles Long Bar—Tommy (Elliott Ness) Murray, running the bar. Clavon thinks he is driving his big Diesel the way he pours drinks. Curry (who is running for Bartender of the Year) Charlie and Slim keeping the girls happy and of course the fellows too.

No beauty problem is the subject of more misconception than acne. Unfortunately, no beauty problem is more wide spread. — Here are questions and answers designed to bring you up to date on the latest scientific views on an old problem. What causes acne? Acne is caused by improper functioning of the oil, or sebaceous, glands in the skin. The oil, or sebum, is abnormally thick so that it does secrete properly, and then clogging of the pores occurs. Blackheads are the result and when these become infected, blemishes occur. WHAT CAUSES the oil glands to function improperly? The cause is not known, however, most doctors today agree that it is related to malfunction of other glands in the body. DOES NERVOUSNESS, improper diet, and careless cleansing cause acne? These things can make acne worse, but they no longer are considered causes. If you have acne, it may be made worse by an emotional upset. You must be prepared to give up chocolate, nuts, fried and greasy goods, soft drinks and rich desserts even though people without acne can eat them with no ill effects. Ordinary methods of cleansing are not enough. Soap and water alone do not dissolve the oil which clogs the pores. Sulphur does, which is one reason why soaps and lotions containing it so often are used in treating acne.

Hot spot—where my boy Bugs continues to have something going at all times. This time it was one of the swinkest sets in a long time, a Cocktail Sip, the house was packed, J. Chapman, Rose, Andy, Brother, Pat, Hank, Polly, June, Doe, Doe, and many others. . .

Barone's Lounge—really the place it use to be, with Twisting, the greatest sounds around, and some doing mixologists. So why don't you drop around for party-time. . .

Baby Grand—Johnny Cakes behind the bar with his ever ready smile. They're twisting like mad these nights at the Grand, come on and meet me there. . .

Club Bobaloo—Lou Schwartz has laid out a lot of loot for the alterations, all for your enjoyment. A grand opening on May 10th will really be something, if you are not 21 or over, please don't come, because we are going to rip PatTown wide open on this night. We are looking for the gang from Newark and Elizabeth, so don't let us down. Hey Hawkeye, Good Luck to you and we will be over to see you. o.k.?

Front Room—Has added something new— and if I were you, I wouldn't waste any time to see what's happening. . .

Continental Ballroom— That's the place, MONDAY, APRIL 30TH is the night. Do you have your ducats for this affair? If you don't call MA 2-8999, between 6 & 9 p.m and ask for YOUR tickets to the big time BARTENDER OF THE YEAR CONTEST, DANCE. James Mann is the Mann to see, for table reservations to accommodate your party. . .

Key Club—The Atmospheric Living Room became the Atmospheric Soul Room on Good Friday and Easter Monday when Rhoda Scott, Joe Thomas and Bill Elliot, played the kind of music their fans love to hear. .

Artist & Models Ltd—Fashion Show & Dance was very enlightening to watch, with the beautiful Models like Princess Margo, Brenda Dunlap, Gladys Porter, Loretta Harris, Margaret Johnson, & Renne Porter. Sadie Veney was the commentator and was assisted by Dee Dee Lawrence, and Reese LaRue, who entertained the audience with his dancing capers. This affair was produced by John T. Barnes. .

Hi. . . A Show was presented by Society Unlimited Models: "Explosion In Fashion". The Models were wearing White Gowns. Herbie Moon, wearing Tails, escorted the lovely Ladies from the floor. Everett Laws sang That Old Devil Moon. Pat Thompson did a Dance in an African Rythem; Theral Edwards Danced; Geneva Streeter, modelled an Orange Print Dress with plain long Orange Coat; Pearl Laws, modeled a white Bathing Suit. Guest model T. J. Jones, wearing Blue Jacket with Navy Pants and Black Shoes. Other models were Christine Allen, Aileen Leach, Lorraine Lipscombe, Elileen Jordan and Shirley Hendricks, Fashion Designer. The Show was one of the best in years!

The Royal Queens of Newark were out in the crowd, celebrating the 6th Anniversary of Mr & Mrs Wm. Adams, with Champagne and J & B with food of all kinds. Guests at the table were Mr & Mrs Walter Dawkins. Larry O'Neal is singing his heart out at the Lyric Bar every Monday nite. Something to hear.

Something to see: the Gold Shoes that Soul Singer Everett Laws is wearing these days. . .
